

ACTOR IN FOR WICKED TIME

EMILY Palmer has been bewitched by blockbuster musical Wicked since she was eight.

Now the 19-year-old, who grew up in Glen Waverley, is set to defy gravity when she plays the role of Madame Morrible in the hit musical next year.

Palmer (pictured) said she was shocked when she received a callback for the role.

"When I found out I was in the show it was like a dream come true," she said.

She said it was her first time playing the role of a villain.

"I played Alice in Alice in Wonderland, so to play someone really evil is exciting," she said.

"The show is amazing and gives you such an incredible background story to the The Wizard of Oz," she said.

Wicked will be performed at the National Theatre in St Kilda from January 19 to 27.

Details:
wickedmusical.com.au